GARCIA ASSASSINATED

The Prime Minister of Spain Shot By An Anarchist.

GREAT EXCITEMENT AND INDIGNATION

Prevails Among All Classes—The Assassin Is in Custody But Narrowly Escaped Lynching—Public Life and Works of Senator Antonio Canovas Del Castillo.

Madrid, Aug. 9.—Senator Canovas Del Castillo, the prime minister of Spain, was assassinated yesterday at Santa Cruz by an anarchist. The murderer shot three shots, two of which struck the victim in the head and the other chest. The wounded man lingered unconscious for two hours and died at 6 o'clock in the afternoon. His wife was but a short distance away when he fell.

In the face of the principle of blending liberal and conservative ideas with the constitutional monarchy, when all parties that had supported this political doctrine had deserted the cause, the assassin was a man of the time before the revolution occurred, and took no part in it.

In the face of the triumphant revolution, after his return from exile and at 6 o'clock in the afternoon, he was supported by Seniors Elzabern, Gallar and two others, he hosted the standard of the legitimate and constitutional monarchy. He was elected president of the cabinet of the new cabinet, called the cabinet of conciliation. He retired in 1890, and was elected president of the cabinet of the extreme Conservative party, but he was called back to the presidency of the cabinet on Dec. 3, of the same year, and charged primarily with the direction of the new legislative elections of the new regime. He was himself elected to the cortes from the city of Madrid in January 1876. It devolved upon him then to bring to an end a civil war and to deal with the first insurrection in Cuba.

With the exception of an interval of five months he continued to hold the premiership down to 1879, when he returned to the cortes. He was elected to the cortes from the city of Madrid in January 1876. It devolved upon him then to bring to an end a civil war and to deal with the first insurrection in Cuba.

COAL MINERS' WAGE BATTLE

And Very Unsatisfactory All Around in the Several Additional to the Ranks of Strikers During the Week.

Pittsburg, Aug. 9.—Although yesterday was considered a day of rest among the strikers, probably the most effective work among the Plum Creek miners was performed. A large mass meeting was held at Camp Isolation at Plum Creek in the afternoon, which, in addition to about 1,000 others, was attended by about 200 women, the wives and daughters of the miners who are still at work in the Plum Creek mines.

Because of the many restrictions put on the strikers they have hitherto been unable to get a good result. The result of the meeting was the assurance from the women that they would join the strikers.

BULGARIAN DISASTER

Forty-Six Persons Killed and Many Wounded in a

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION

Due To Careless Handling of Explosives.

Sofia, Bulgaria, Aug. 9.—A disastrous explosion occurred at the cartridge factory of Rostuchuk, on the Danube, 100 miles northwest of Varna. Forty-six persons were killed outright, and many others were injured. The lives of 60 of the latter are despaired of.

The cause of the explosion is not known, though it is attributed to carelessness on the part of one of the workmen in handling the explosives.

Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria, visited the scene of the disaster, and visited the sufferers from the explosion who had been taken to the hospital, and caused money to be distributed to the families of the victims.

Rostuchuk is a city on the south bank of the Danube, 40 miles from Bucharest. It has 20,000 inhabitants and the cartridge depot is one of the largest in Bulgaria.

Two hours after his death at Lexington, Ky., notice was received that Randolph Johnson, a pensioner, with back pay, amounting to $1,000, had been killed.

PHILIP D. ARMOUR says wheat will be $1 below Thanksgiving and $1.50 within six months.

The Republicans held their State Convention in Louisville yesterday to nominate a candidate for Clerk of the Court of Appeals. A full delegation from the county was present.

Farm products are selling at very fair prices, but there has been a big drop in the price of land. We heard of a farm recently which was offered at private sale for $10,000, which a few years ago would have been $15,000.

The experience of Miss Bayl is in Louisville last week should be a lesson to other young women. Never to get in a carriage with a drunken brute of a man or walk with him or go anywhere with him. A woman can reform a man mighty quick if he would only assert himself.

J. H. LENKIN the fusion candidate for the Legislature in this county opened out on the Republican party at a picnic out at Leeper Hill last Saturday. He said that there were very little left of the g. o. p. when he got there. The old man was once a Republican himself and he knew a few of their tricks and does not hesitate to tell of them when he gets a chance.

The campaign in this county seems to be opening up. At least there is a good deal of talk and the candidates are working around shaking hands and making themselves agreeable. It may be hard on the people. They lose sight of their business, their work and become absorbed in politics. A three month's campaign is too long for a little county office. There ought not to be a speech made before the first of October.

Since the end of the war, according to New York Sun, more than two billion dollars, that is to say, more than two thousand million dollars, has been paid out in pensions on account of a war that ended more than thirty years ago. The annual pension list, says the Sun, has been consuming more than nine-tenths of all the revenue taken in at all of the Custom Houses of the United States. Out of the other sources of the Government's income, the receipts from internal revenues, ninety-six per cent of the total would be required to pay them. The pension business is growing larger every year and it is well for patriots to look into it and study the facts. Thirty-two years after the end of the civil war, the number of pensioners on account of that war exceeds by about a quarter of a million the number of soldiers actually engaged in service. The Government at any time between the firing upon Sumpter and the murder of Lee at Appomattox. The army of pensioners after the war of a century is between thirty and forty per cent larger than the fighting army at any time during that war. These facts, as the Sun says, alarming and they need to be studied by the sober thinking, conservative element of the country. A deserving soldier is a fit subject for a pension and no good citizen will object to his having one. But when it comes to keeping up a lot of fellows who never smelt powder or shouldered a musket it is time to call a halt along this line.

Mrs. Owen Cunningham and children have come to her father's to stay until after the November election. She is an earnest, faithful worker in every good cause and will be missed in the church and Sunday School. She leaves her Louisville friends in the charge of Mrs. V. G. Babbage.

Old lady Adkinson, a twin sister to John Kennedy, attended the Freedom meeting last Sunday. Mrs. Adkinson is now 90 years of age and appears unusually active for one so old. She said she went out to old Freedom last Sunday because it might be the last one she would ever attend there.

The Western Foreign Missionary Society held its August meeting in the beautiful new home of Mrs. Chas. I. Beard. A goodly number was in attendance and it was an interesting meeting. After adjournment Mrs. Beard showed the ladies through every nook and corner, and the perfectness of the plan, the elegance, comfort and convenience of the building was appreciated by everyone.

There was a large crowd out at Freedom last Sunday. The dust and dry weather didn't keep many away. The women were covered in bonnets, baggies, wagons etc., and the crowd of people covered as much territory as usual. Rev. Board preached in the morning and evening. He will continue the meeting this week, assisted by Rev. Mr. Anderson, from Ohio county.

Frank Haynes, of Granger, Texas, arrived here last week and is visiting his old home and friends near Garfield. Mr. Haynes went to Texas 15 years ago and has been quite successful there. He now owns three very good farms there, either of which is quite valuable. He says he doesn't think of coming back to Kentucky to live and his wife has his last visit here. When he was here seven years ago, John T. son of Dudley Haynes, went back with him. He told in here with, brought home married there, bought a farm and is doing well.

The death of John Haynes which occurred near Garfield some two weeks ago, removed from that section one of the old land marks and pioneer residents of the county. He was 50 years of age. He was born and reared in this county and was a direct descendant of old Capt. Ben Hardin on his mother's side. The Haynes family are numerous in the county, their ancestors settling here in its early history. Old Dudley Haynes, the father of John, came here from Virginia in 1812. He had quite a large family. There were five other sons besides John. Four of them are yet living: Edmund, Daniel, Nelson and Hardin. John, who has just died, left four children: D. B. and Frank Haynes, Mrs. Geo. McCoy and Mrs. Jas. Webb. Mr. Haynes was a quiet man, but a honest, upright citizen. He was a member of the Pleasant Grove church, where he held membership of long standing. His children are all at his residence last Friday and made a division of some of his personal effects, among which were some pieces of table ware purchased over 50 years ago. Mr. Haynes died, leaving several hundred dollars in gold, which his children have not yet been able to find any trace of. He undoubtedly had this money and several cash notes. They are unable to account for it and think the old man probably buried it.

R. M. JOLLY.

Republican nominee for State Senate, recently nominated by the Republicans of the Tenth Senate District to be the convention at Cloverport. Following is a sketch of Mr. Jolly's life.

R. M. Jolly eldest son of Thomas J. Jolly, was born January 18, 1818, on a farm near Bewleyville, Breckenridge county, Ky., receiving a common school education at the age of 17. He embarked on his own responsibility, first teaching a term of the common school in Meade county, then going to Hardinsburg and settling in Commerce, where he was his uncle, G. F. Jolly, afterwards taking a clerkship in the dry goods store of Hensley & Board. In 1857 he was married to Lydia A. Hensley, daughter of N. L. Hensley, deceased, and a niece of Hona, G. and B. F. Board. In the same year he entered into the mercantile business at Bewleyville and continued in this and farming for a number of years. In 1859 he had the town of Irvington laid out and has succeeded by energetic efforts to make it a success. He is now and has been for some time engaged in the milling business at Irvington, Ky. He has always been an energetic business man and has been engaged in most every line of business and never looking at an opportunity of bringing his county and state to the front. He has always been identified with the interests of the farm and labor and would never look at an opportunity of which he has always been a true Republican (which is the nearest thing the News can say about him) but with that he has always been just and to all other parties, granting every man his right to think and vote as he thinks best. He has not sought this nomination, refusing to accept the nomination on the morning of the convention, but his friends and his party would not listen to him. It is partly a case of the "Office seeking man."

He accepts the nomination, which he can hardly refuse to do, the Democrats may look for a fight in earnest, as Mr. Jolly does not do anything half way.

For once, Mr. Editor, I am behind in items, being about two or three days thrown me out.

I particularly enjoyed Mrs. H. V. Duncan's stay. She is a congenial friend. What is equal to congeniality?

Mrs. H. V. Duncan after a most pleasant visit to her son and wife has gone to Roanoke to see her sister, Mrs. Taylor.

Scott Grinnell, Henry Nevitt attended the ice cream supper at Mr. Patterson's after which they patronized the hop at Guston.

Mrs. Wm. M. Dittio has been in Louisville under treatment for nervousness. We all hope she may soon be her bright, attractive self.

Bro. Jenkins and Bro. Pate both held services morning and night last Sunday. Protracted meeting will begin next Monday night at Baptist church.

The news of Tom Kendall's untimely death shocked us very much. He was a kind-hearted, generous man ever ready to lend a helping hand to one in need.

News has reached me of several fall weddings of friends who were once Breckenridge citizens. Mention and congratulations when I have more time.

Prof. C. M. Nevitt and Miss Fannie Pusey Phillips were the guests of Miss Myrtle Moorman, of Big Spring. They are entertained over Mrs. Moorman's pleasant home.

I had a pleasant day with Mrs. J. K. Dittio's family. Mrs. Ned Reed, of near Columbus, is visiting her parents. She keeps the blood of youth beautifully. She has a fine boy.

The Missionary Society of the M. E. church had an interesting meeting last Friday afternoon with Mrs. Milton Reed. Several addresses were read and Mrs. Pate read her mission notes from the late Haverhill convention.

Henry Mall, who has had typhoid fever for sometime, is reported in a serious condition. As this goes to press I am able to send perfect but let hope the dear young man may yet recover. How my heart goes out to that young wife of a few months.

The Meade county and Moolyville baseball teams met two games on the Moolyville grounds. No betting was the edict of their team which is as it should be—the national game is all right in gambling or in sports. The Meade county nine are very jubilant over scores and decisions.

Miss Allie Reid and I had a most pleasant stay in Big Spring. It always affords me genuine pleasure to meet and mingle with those interesting people whom I once lived. The old town is full of visitors and quite gay. The picnic and moonlight trip had patronage from the city and adjacent towns.

My friend, John Hardin, of Big Spring is as staunch on the financial issue as the ex-President or the ex-Treasurer. He likes the News and says our editors are the most genuine in views of an honest man reads on the above and the firm in one's own views is all right but not intolerant of others who conscientiously differ.

News reached here Monday morning of the death of Mr. Dick Wimp who died at his daughter's, Mrs. Dr. Walker, of Garrettsville. Mr. Wimp was one of the oldest residents of Meade county and had lived in this county his life time. He was of excellent reputation and a man whose friends appreciated him.

Last week was a gala week, educationally, with us, sixty odd teachers took possession of the town. Prof. Mrs. Wm. Rhodes kept things humming as warm as a thermometer. The musical and literary entertainments on Wednesday and Thursday nights were heart trouble to the audience. The Institute brought a great many visitors to town from quite a distance. Mr. W. D. Ashcraft was to be congratulated upon its success in every particular. He has accomplished wonders in stimulating the spirit of educational interest.

Mrs. Harriet Powell, one of our oldest and most highly esteemed citizens, died last Friday night of heart trouble. She had fallen three weeks ago and broken both ankle bones, but was doing well and strong hopes were entertained of her recovery when she died unexpectedly, but she was ready, for long years Mrs. Powell had worn the world as a loose garment. She had been a faithful, consistent member of the Baptist church for forty odd years. She was a most devoted mother and leaves four children to miss her kindly advice and loving ministrations. She had been a widow twenty years. Her life time a course of friends that assembled to pay the last tribute of respect attended the session in which she was held. "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord."

Depression of Spirits

so common in summer-time, accompanied by loss of energy, lack of thought-power, means a deficient supply of nourishment. The vital force is lost. It isn't a question of muscle and sinew, but of resistance and endurance. At any age, especially in youth, it involves especially of lung disease. Loss of flesh and a cough are threatening signs.

Breckenridge for the reason that he is now and has been a regular subscriber to the News and he says there is no paper that he and his family enjoy so much. Speaking of crops in Kansas he said they were fine and that times were prosperous. He had 300 acres in wheat he said, "that will make me between six and seven thousand bushels this year and it is usual. I own 400 acres of fine five bottom land as you ever saw and it produces from 10 to 20 bushels of corn to the acre. Have plenty of stock and three crops of corn on hand. I am doing fairly well, but I expect some day to come back to old Kentucky and live and die in old Breckenridge." He says, "There is no place like Kentucky" and one would have thought so to have seen the large smile on his countenance when he said no doubt by the thought, of once more stepping on her soil.

Misses Mame and Kate Smith, of the Mrs. W. H. Worthington home near Bewleyville, returned to their home last week for home Saturday evening.

Allowing that it wasn't respectable to be a Republican in Kentucky ten years ago, if the Republicans have in the course of those years succeeded in removing the odium, they have certainly achieved something to be commended for, not to take courage and "go marching on." As such Charles, he is an enthusiastic "turn of mind."

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week there will be instructions for the children of St. Rose Sunday school.

Shoes showed here last week. The prices were not up to the average. Nevertheless some very laughable plays were introduced.

Richard Owen, Democratic candidate for sheriff of this county, was in the city Monday. He is sure of the party's success this fall.

Retain your money and spend it with the Fair. They will soon greet you with a varied stock of dry goods, clothing, books and shoes.

Capitalist invest your money in building nice comfortable residences. No better paying investment.

Eight in one family at Georgetown are ill with typhoid fever. Their illness is due to drinking cistern water which was found to contain typhoid germs.

Mr. J. D. Kelley has resigned his position with the Owensboro Messenger. He was connected with the editorial department and wielded an able pen.

Mej. Geo. C. Sebastian died in New Orleans on Aug. 7, after a protracted illness. Mr. Sebastian was a native of Mrs. John W. Raitt and Mrs. A. E. Fisher and was born and raised in this city. He has resided for many years in New Orleans where he was well-known. He was about 65 years old at the time of his death.

French's New Sensation No. 1, in charge of Mrs. Cattie French, treated the people of this city Monday evening with an excellent show in every particular. The show is composed of twenty-five performers who are the best that have ever traveled on the river. Mr. and Mrs. French, who have long been recognized for their moral shows, always have been a crowd of people when they arrived at the Cloverport wharf.

Thomas Kendall, well-known in this city, was shot and instantly killed at Mt. Sterling Saturday morning. He was associated in business with Mr. Penfif, his partner, had collected some money and Kendall demanded a settlement, the former refusing. Kendall says, "I'll have you arrested," whereupon Penfif drew his pistol and fired. The affair is deeply regretted here, where Mr. Kendall had many staunch friends.

The County Court has been petitioned to give $35 towards the improvement of the road which leads to Hawsentown. This road is impassable and needs attention. The judges will not make a mistake in allowing the amount asked for. Money spent on roads is money well spent.

The pathway is smooth and the proper course is being pursued by a newspaper as long as everything said of certain persons is altogether complimentary. They never think or have the time to offer a word of praise to the editors but let an error occur and it will not be ten hours before the parties have called at the office pointing and jabbering and saying, "I don't want my name mentioned again," because the right thing was not written. Pass that party by four or five times and you'll hear something like this, "I have been away several times and have never yet seen my name in the paper." The trouble with the majority of the people is that they are not contented enough. They will not take the time to give a word of praise to the editors. How do you expect us to get all the news unless you render us some assistance.

Why can't one of our older citizens here make a start to break up the base ball playing on Sunday. It is a disgrace to the town for strangers to pass through and hear the cursing and swearing that is carried on. Sunday the 25th there was a match game here. The whooping and swearing was disgraceful enough when some Harpersburg sports wanted things run their own way, (and we learned they had enough to make them think they could do it) and got into a difficulty. When Mr. Wright was summoned they managed to get them out of town before he arrived at the ball ground.

A game of ball for "young men" occasionally is very good in its place, but when it is carried to excess as it has been here, for the past two months, playing through the week and on Sunday, it is time for the people to put a stop to it. In a short while it will kill the town. Who would want to locate here, if Sunday after Sunday they have to listen to such screaming and howling, and the base ball ground the only resort for their children? We know if some one would request the owner of the grounds to forbid them to play, there on Sunday, we think he would do so. If they must play ball let them play on week days as I keep holy the Sabbath day.

The Ohio Valley Normal College. The normal school is situated at Corydon, Indiana, in the adjoining county across the river. The building and its features are ample for 500 students. The faculty is made up of scholarly men and women, each a specialist in his department, at present there are eight instructors.

The school is not a local affair, but prepares teachers for Kentucky and other states just as well as for Indiana. The Kentucky History and Civil Government are taught. The spirit of the school is that of real earnest life work. No foolishness or courting life work.
